

PURITAN
REFORMED
THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Two Faculty Openings

Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary is seeking to fill two positions in the faculty. The areas of need are in Systematic Theology and the specific disciplines of Apologetics, Christian Ethics, Contemporary Theology, and Christian Philosophy, as well as Biblical Studies, Missions, and Counseling. Fulfillment of position(s) is desired for fall of 2021 or possibly staggered (i.e., one for fall of 2021, and the other for fall of 2022).

Applicants must hold a PhD degree, have outstanding academic qualifications and experience along with ministerial experience, and demonstrate a Christ-like character and testimony. In addition, applicants must adhere to the Three Forms of Unity and Westminster Standards as their confession and must be thoroughly committed to Reformed, experiential theology and ministry.

Applications along with a current CV may be submitted no later than November 25 to:
